

Response Based-Practice Workshop

With

Dr. Allan Wade, Ph.D. and Dr. Linda Coates Ph.D.

Penticton Tapas Menu

THURSDAY, March 8, 2012 900AM – 430PM

- Origins and Key Tenets of Response-Based Practice
- The Importance of Social Responses to Victims and Offenders
- From Effects to Responses
- Understanding of Resistance to Violence
- Violence is Deliberate

FRIDAY, March 9, 2012 830AM – 430PM

- Violence is Unilateral
- Language Analysis – Emergency Protection Orders, Legal Judgments, Psychological Reports
- Language and Victim Experience
- Applications of Response Based Training -Child Protection, Transition House Work
- Responding to Sexualized Assault and Intimate Partner Violence
- Working for First Nations, Métis and Inuit Peoples

SATURDAY, March 10, 2012 830AM – 400PM

- Interviewing in Detail
- Interviewing Practice Activities
- Working for Children and Youth
- Domestic Violence and Family Law
- Working with Men who Use Violence
- Violence and Language

Order of Consumption May Vary*

